

I am writing to urge you to immediately adopt non-animal testing and in particular to incorporate the in vitro cell culture method. It is long overdue that our government value ALL life, and institute policies evidencing these values. Our humanity's survival depends on such value changes.

Ilene Napp